

Ready to watch the world burn
Burn my body up, take me first
Roses and ashes in my urn
Lower me down into the dirt
I will rise from ashes
Somewhere in the UNDERWORLD
I will sever and damage
Every single person on the opposite turf
Occupy nights with blunts and wines
Everybody has their vices, and I have I mine
I'm a patient man but I hate wasting all this time
If there is nothing I desire, I will take what I like
Shakin' my head like Dimebag
I used to cop them dub sacks
Now I need 2 O's like one, bitch
Bitch, just keep keepin' your distance
Tell me now, who's really listening?
Your shit ain't really the business
We get more clicks on our own shit
Keep your head off of my hit list
I know a bitch when she desperate
Keep your bitch off of my dick, bitch
How you gon rap like you flexin'?
When we the ones been getting rich, bitch
