OmenXIII

Put a bullet in my skull and every time I do I'm waking up
I've been dreaming lucidly for weeks on end and now I'm stuck
I've been seeing entities inside my room for way too long They whisper in my ear some things they tell me not to tell no one

I might slit my wrist, pray to the sky that I'ma die tonight
I know no one's listening besides my friends that's by my side
I'm always alone, just know my friends always come out at night
They might try to kill you in your sleep if you ain't talking r ight

(They might kill you in your sleep if you ain't talking right)

I might try to find out where you stay if you start talking shi t

Twitter fingers moving quickly, see me then you disappear
Pull up on me, find out what I'm 'bout, I cannot disappoint
Swing a thousand blades all at your body 'til you get the point Get the pun?

If you see me better run

If you hear me better drop, pray to something you survive

Cause I really cannot lie

I don't really wanna kill

But if you ever threaten me or anyone that's with me then you g et the deal
