OmenXIII

Aye from me to you, people change up quickly when they see you move
See they fools, I ain't never had a single thing to prove
Please improve, all yo little secret moves ain't sneaky dude
See the truth, I got money bitch I never needed you

People can't tell me shit bitch
People can't get on my list bitch
People don't know my set bitch
People don't know I'm reckless People know I ain't flexin
People know I'm just livin
Got another rack just last week
Got another sack just last week
Bitch what you do with yo time
Bitch you ain't shit so stop lyin'
Watch what I do with my time
Watch what I do with my mind
I don't just get, I take mines
I don't just kill, I take lives
Rip rip rip, when I tear it up live
I sip sip sip, on red wine

From me to you, people change up quickly when they see you move
See they fools, I ain't never had a single thing to prove
Please improve, all yo little secret moves ain't sneaky dude
See the truth, I got money bitch I never needed you
From me to you, people change up quickly when they see you move
See they fools, I ain't never had a single thing to prove
Please improve, all yo little secret moves ain't sneaky dude
See the truth, I got money bitch I never needed you
