

Second Chance

OmenXIII

I've got blessings in my life
I've had blessings taken out
I'm just blessed to be alive
But I don't rest so easy now
This world is rotting inside out
Let every leaf fall to the ground
Let precipitation come down and evaporate me now
Take me back up to the clouds
Throw me back down under the dirt
Push me back up through the roots
I don't care how much it hurts
I don't care, let it hurt
I don't care, let me hurt
Please just let me feel something
Because feeling nothing's worse
Look at my face, I feel nothing
Look in my eyes and you see nothing
If we're coming through your sesh
And tell the block you ain't see nothing
No sympathy for the foolish
No remorse for the weak
No love for the selfish
No compassion for the meek
See they can bring the fire
We'll be riding on the rain
When I look down at your world
Sometimes I want to save it
But then when I look down at the cowards
All I feel is fucking hate
I only love my family
What's the name? We leave it blank, bitch
