

See Through

OmenXIII

You don't know how it feels to me like me
Everybody hated me but now they despise me
I don't care, how hard ya life might be
I don't give a fuck they don't know how to take it lightly
Bitch don't hit up my phone, airplane mode, leave me alone
Where the fuck was you when I was struggling on my own?
Start the confessing, you fake as your lean
I'm never stressing, I know how to fiend
Gizmo the ghoul, I'm with OmenXIII
Leave blood on the scene, cut up bodies and spleens
Straight out the dirt like a worm in the Earth
Feeling like Kurt ever since I was birthed
Drugs in my veins so I can't feel the hurt
But I still know the pain that I couldn't avert

Bitch, I came up with no recognition
Off the block, can't catch me slipping
Bodies dropping, switches flipping
Carlo copping, Rossi sipping
Hold up, why they hit my line and just act like they know me?
Hold up, I can see right through you, bitch, I know you phony
Phone keep buzzing nowadays
Just last year they ain't know my name
Don't come too close, just stay away
Nothing near me's ever safe
I break everything I touch, I break everything I love
Say you understand me but you'll never be like one of us
