

Seperating Self From Me

OmenXIII

If you could show me what I am
If you could show me where I've been
In the wind I'm like a feather
While I drift I find my pleasure
Though I find I don't surrender
Never thought I'd be pretender
Tally marks upon the walls and my mind 'til I crawl under the dirt
I don't have a point to prove
I've all to gain not much to lose
Life is very simple
Life is choices that I choose
I just don't know what I want
Not sure what I need to do
Life has become so mundane
So I think I just need to seek the truth
'Till I seek I cannot find
I find my mind devours time
They say you'll become what you eat
I think that's how I learned to fly
Not sure if my mind is mine
But I'm sure I'm not my mind
Seperating self from me
Has changed this thing I call my life
Omen's just a moment
Omen's only here until I die
Addcited to illusion
Gotta let go of those lies
Or I'll still stuck in this loop
Hard for me to see the light
It's getting dimmer every night
Though the moon lights up the sky
I will become all I need
Cause' all I need is what is mine
I've got nothing left inside
Hallowed out until I die
I've got nothing left but time
Think I take my time and spy
I will take a little pride
Hard for me, but I can try

I can try I can try hard for me but I can try
I can try I can try hard for me but I can try
I can try I can try hard for me but I can try
I can try I can try hard for me but I can try
