OmenXIII

When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down
When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down
When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down
When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down

When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down
In silence we bring the noise, then we turn up the fuckin' sound
I'm The Widow Reaper (yuh), I'm The King without a doubt
013 The Demigod, I came back to flex the crown
Who want it now? My Kingdom comes to burn it down
Let's burn it down, burn it all to the ground
When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down
When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down

I see no one else around, RSG still hold it down
Runnin' up racks, I'ma drop 'em on rounds
Aimin' at the enemy until we run out
Can't nobody next to me doubt me at all
365, 24/7, we ball
I'm kickin' my feet up, I'm still on the clock
I'm weaving webs, connecting all the dots, non-stop

Okay, we are not the same
'Cause when it rains, we won't wash away
Okay, we are not the same
'Cause when it rains, we won't wash away

Two steps ahead, bitch, I feel like a Kojima
8 legs got me movin' fast-fast
Talkin' that shit then my Venom gon' bust back
Leave 'em paralyzed when I bite, no kickback
I'm still the BlackWidow, dressed up in all black and white
I might throw red in to calm down my appetite
I have no purpose but threatening life
I'm still that crazy, crazy, killa-killa on the mic, lil' bitch

Okay
When the real ones ain't around, we still gotta hold it down
