Ten Thousand Threads

OmenXIII

I don't make assumptions
Other people make them first
I don't make excuses all I know is make it work
And I don't mind the pain
Never feel it you don't learn
Once you feel it as much as I have you relize it don't hurt
That's why I can't give a fuck
About a girl, about a blonde, about myself, about a chump
Two steping in the pit next to me
Don't press your luck
I been screaming seven years now
So I gotta switch it up
You can tell me who I sounding like
Just know I don't give a fuck

You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
You see me going up
I don't give a fuck
