

Three Days

OmenXIII

Swaying in the shadows, bitch I do this every day
I don't want to feel the pain, I could never feel the pain
I don't want to see the hate, I pull the blade and mask my face
You see I'd say I'd stand my ground, but there's no ground where I remain

I see the coward speaks, but I have yet to see his face
Is he real or is he fake, bring him to me, what's his name
You can try to cause a scene, but I'll just laugh at your dismay
You can complain all you want but OmenXIII's here to stay

I stepped into the pit, just so I could breathe again
Then I crawled up out the pit, just so I could bring you in Heard you said you like to tango, toe to toe now with the prince
I two-step and swing my fist so quick you ducking like a bitch

Bitch I'm waltzing with my blade just like Fiora used to do
I see I've brought you to your knees, I haven't even crossed the room
You see crossing me's the quickest way to meet your fucking doom
Think I'll ever need your opinion then you haven't got a clue

I see the coward speaks, but I have yet to see his face
Is he real or is he fake, bring him to me, what's his name
You can try to cause a scene, but I'll just laugh at your dismay
OmenXIII gives no fuck, OmenXIII's here to stay

"If you wanna get out alive, oh' run for your life"
