

Ophidian Sunrise

Omnium Gatherum

Like a day newborn
Timeless, still, an echo and a dawn
Our life
Within the yearning skies
It is all worth a being
Saying and believing
It shall never for ever

Love
Dances through grace and wonder
A balance exepcted
It is how to love

O it is beautiful tonight
Laughter cradeling falling tears
Though a countless lives away
There is not a day
We did not learn to live
