

Threnos

On Thorns I Lay

Water with tears of Sorrow
As God Lives...we survive in flames
Apples of Eden...ripe to merrow
Before our souls will touch the sun

In deepest grief
In Endless Night
A broken hope
It's time to fall

Born to the Future
To the future's lost
It's not the forces of faith
But the prophets of our savior

Threnos the funeral song
Threnos requiem in sorrow..

Emotions freeze
When the cold breeze
Take me in deep Sleep
In Eternal peace...

As I die nobody seems to care
In your hands
So much pain

Threnos the funeral song
Threnos requiem in sorrow...

My soul begs for freedom
My heart want's peace
A last breath in sadness
As last fear in sorrow...
