

Deadlock

Once Human

Obeyer, obeyer

Rush in the hot-boxed chaos
Hard facts in the face of denial
Lust for the no-cost payoff
Bad taste in your mouth it's so vile
Deadlocked dead
Strengthen your mind there can be no deadweight
Don't take their propaganda bait
Stand up to lead, accept your fate

Crush, it's a bitter tomorrow
Crush, bite and swallow
Crush, for a better tomorrow
Crush

They got us in a deadlock, deadlock
You're stuck to the screen and now you're part of the flock
In a deadlock, deadlock
Got you trapped in a cage, your head over the block
All this racial division, liars and politicians
Verbal magicians always squirming and twisting us into a
Deadlock, deadlock
Deadlock, deadlock

Obeyer, obeyer

Red-handed, white knight leaders
Judge not, cannot put us on trial
Rich from your poor mind's reason
Hard truths, better wipe off your smile
Deadlocked dead
Strengthen your mind there can be no deadweight
Don't take their propaganda bait
Stand up to lead, accept your fate

Crush, it's a bitter tomorrow
Crush, bite and swallow
Crush, for a better tomorrow
Crush

They got us in a deadlock, deadlock
You're stuck to the screen and now you're part of the flock
In a deadlock, deadlock
Got you trapped in a cage, your head over the block
All this racial division, liars and politicians
Verbal magicians always squirming and twisting us into a
Deadlock, deadlock
Deadlock, deadlock

I understand
Or die, standing under
Genocide if we close our eyes
No!

They got us in a deadlock, deadlock
You're stuck to the screen and now you're part of the flock

In a deadlock, deadlock
Got you trapped in a cage, your head over the block
All this racial division, liars and politicians
Verbal magicians always squirming and twisting us into a
Deadlock, deadlock
Deadlock, deadlock
