

Devil Can Have You

Once Human

I smell your blood trail
You're like a dog on its last legs
I can almost taste the kill
The chase, the thrill
Of watching your last breath
I hope you suffer
Your heart will bleed in the palm of my hand
You're going under
If I can't have you, the devil can

You give me your life
Looking for eternity
You give me your mind
I drove it to insanity
Oh, you want to run now?
You promised you would never leave
If I burn, I swear I'll take you down with me

I took your breath away
Now I'll make it stop
Your blood runs cold in the rain
It's from your veins
Love to watch your rot
I hope you suffered
Hear me laugh as I bury you
Down six feet under
Now just look at what you made me do!

You give me your life
Looking for eternity
You give me your mind
I drove it to insanity
Oh, you want to run now?
You promised you would never leave
If I burn, I swear I'll take you down with me

You give me your life
Looking for eternity
You give me your mind
I drove it to insanity
Oh, you want to run now?
You promised you would never leave
If I burn, I swear I'll take you down with me
