

Drain

Once Human

Survival mode sheds light on reality
Out for my blood, prepared your apologies
Your victim guise, haunting my bones
Mouth mimics cries, but you're laughing with your eyes

Oh, drowning in the mire
You've fallen for my faces as my breath devours
Oh, take me by the hand
Let me have my way with how you end, my friend

Break me down, pre-digested with your acids
All boils down to your hunger pains
I watch you tremble at the sight of healthy flesh, you addict
I know what you're here for, it lies between your teeth
The sweet taste of failure, in my flavor

There's two sides to you
Only one that you feed
There's no life in you
But what you take from me
I turn my back on you
So you turn the world on me
I want to run from you
But your steel trap rips my feet
I had no choice but to chew
And sever that part of me

Sink your teeth into my fate through my soul
Took a blunt cut to my head to kill you off
You're bleeding out my senses, drain it all
You're feeding on my ashes, cannibal

I've been your breathing machine all this time
I will not resuscitate you, I'll cut the line
Accomplice to my own killing, retract my blade
Inflict the wounds of healing, I cut you out of me

I go dark on you
You light the fire to
Hunt me, you didn't know
They'd see you, you're exposed
I had to walk away
As your screams fill the air
Your pain, calling my name
But you killed the part of me that cares

Sink your teeth into my fate through my soul
Took a blunt cut to my head to kill you off
You're bleeding out my senses, drain it all
You're feeding on my ashes, cannibal

Cauterize my
Softer side
I'm under the knife
Solder
The remains of my life
Cauterize my

Softer side
I'm under the knife
Solder
The remains of my life
