

Growing Colder

Once Human

I am cursed, immortal
I am trapped inside my life
Murder, it's useless
I've already died
I suffocate
I bury alive
I obliterate
I self-destruct
For what? I'm empty inside

Oh, I know I'm all alone again
Story of my life
Hate to show I'm growing colder
So I go alone

Hatred, eternal
Oh my God, what have I become?
My soul, infernal
What have I done?
I terminate
I'm perpetual war
I annihilate
I self-destruct
For what? I'm empty inside

Oh, I know I'm all alone again
Story of my life
Hate to show I'm growing colder
So I go alone again
Alone again

Come to save me, I will hide
Try to fix me but inside
I need the pain to make me whole again
The walls I've built are closing in
The hole I dugged I'm falling in
I [?] my chains unto the end

Oh, I know I'm all alone again
Story of my life
Hate to show I'm growing colder
So I go alone again
Alone again
