

Sledgehammer

Once Human

Collide
We are but the shapes of ruins
We divide
Fallen life still remains
Revive
Hit the wall and bleed my way through it
Coincides with how I build myself again

One piece
Where would it be?
A road
I don't want to know

Sledgehammer
Break me brick by brick and hit me
Hit me where I'm weakest
Sledgehammer
Wreck me brick by brick, don't miss me
I learned to live in pieces

A crumbling dire mind
Reflects in the bleak
I don't want to look in the mirror
I make it show me
Nothings rinds the eyes
Like a breath in the bleak
The murk couldn't be any clearer
With my arms open

Sledgehammer
Break me brick by brick and hit me
Hit me where I'm weakest
Sledgehammer
Wreck me brick by brick, don't miss me
I learned to live in pieces

Rewind
Make me whole
A life
I don't want to... know

Sledgehammer
Break me brick by brick and hit me
Hit me where I'm weakest
Sledgehammer
Wreck me brick by brick, don't miss me
I learned to live in pieces

Sledgehammer
Who would it be?
Sledgehammer
I don't want to know
Sledgehammer
Who would it be?
I learned to live in pieces
