Ondara

I'm counting fingers now
Courting aristocrats
I'm currying favours now
Trusting the bureaucrats

Is the bar for being an alcoholic a little bit higher now?
A little bit higher now
Is the bar for being an alcoholic a little bit higher now?
'Cause I can't get out of this house

I'm searching figures now
Dreading a second wave
I'm pouring glasses down
Digging a subtle grave

Is the bar for being an alcoholic a little bit higher now?
A little bit higher now
Is the bar for being an alcoholic a little bit higher now?
'Cause I can't get out of this house

Is the bar for being an alcoholic a little bit higher now?
A little bit higher now
Is the bar for being an alcoholic a little bit higher now?
'Cause I can't get out of this house

I can't get out of this house
I can't get out of this house
I can't get out of this house
I can't get out of this house
