

Baesically (Interlude)

One Acen

She wanna take me in
See me stuntin' up a night G
She wanna come where I go
I think I love her like a wifey

I ain't really seeing nobody
You ain't really seeing nobody
Hundred niggas up in your DMs
Only one nigga seeing your body
You're beautiful, I think you should know
I'm giving you my soul, please don't lose control

Gimme room, gimme space
Everywhere we go I'm the life of the party
You just wanna dance, get waved
Everyone saw you walk past me
Even tho we're going home to the same place
We should keep it on the low, no names
Who would've thought that you would ever fall for the Slim rudeboy with the fade, ay

(Me) I'm just living life, no drama
(You) You know that I'm everything you're after
(You) Looking like a devil in a blue dress
(Me) And I'm looking like the boy in da corner
Yah, that's a match made in heaven
You ain't waving no flag but you're repping
We should fly away what do you reckon?
Far from a stranger when you're in my bedroom

I ain't really seeing nobody
You ain't really seeing nobody
Hundred niggas up in your DMs
Only one nigga seeing your body
Beautiful (you're beautiful), I think you should know
I'm giving you my soul, please don't lose control

I wanna put you in a finer
I wanna put you in designer
Whatever is a minor
Don't tell nobody that it's mine tho
Only you and I know
You can go wherever I go
Only you and I know
Only you and I know

(Me) I ain't really seeing nobody
You ain't really seeing nobody
(You) Hundred niggas up in your DMs
Only one nigga seeing your body
(You) Beautiful, I think you should know
I'm giving you my soul, please don't lose control
