

Apologize

One Desire

I'm living on the edge in the middle of a battlefield
I'm trying to stay alive somehow
Wrapped me in the flag, sent me off to the great unknown
I am closing this distance between us
I gotta know why, ohh

I don't apologize, the dead may rise underneath the velvet sky
I've said it before, I say it again, I don't apologize, just get it right
And take me straight into the night
I'm higher, higher

Walking in the shadows on my way to the promised land
You can never change me, I'm for real
I'm flying with the black crows from six feet underground
I am closing this distance between us
I gotta know why, ohh

I don't apologize, the dead may rise underneath the velvet sky
I've said it before, I say it again, I don't apologize, just get it right
And take me straight into the night
I'm higher, higher

Oh no, no, won't apologize again

I don't apologize, the dead may rise underneath the velvet sky
I've said it before, I say it again

I don't apologize, the dead may rise underneath the velvet sky
I've said it before, I say it again
I don't apologize, just get it right
And take me straight into the night

I don't apologize, I never ever, ever will apologize
I don't apologize
