

Turn Back Time

One Desire

There you were
With those big brown eyes among the crowd
Piercing like a knife

And years ago
Those times were carved into my bare soul, yeah
And I don't wanna let them go

(Turn back time)

I should have fought for something more
Now I am wiser than before
And I would never let you go
If you turn back time
Now those years are on my mind
How did I ever get so blind?
I would give it all I have
If you turn back time

There I was
I was trying hard to dry your troubled tears
Inflicted by myself
And all the why's seem to be so trivial with time
It's time to forge our hearts

So here I am
It's not too late to make things right
Oh, It's not too late to fight

I should have fought for something more
Now I am wiser than before
And I would never let you go
If you turn back time
Now those years are on my mind
How did I ever get so blind?
I would give it all I have
If you turn back time

And from the dusk 'til the first light
I pray that I'll still hold you tight
I'd never ever let you go
I'll never ever let you go

(Turn back time)

I should have fought for something more
Now I am wiser than before
And I would never let you go
If you turn back time
Now those years are on my mind
How did I ever get so blind?
I would give it all I have
If you turn back time

I should have fought for something more
Now I am wiser than before

If you turn back time
Now those years are on my mind
How did I ever get so blind?
