

Burn (A Fire Within)

One Fine Day

there's a fire within keeps me alive and goin'
for this obsession
missin' any cure

can yoo hear the voices questionin' your choices demand to confess
and watchin'you for sure

red hot, alight
burn burn tonight
we set the world on fire

are you ready for another unrequested bother
what do you prefer?
pride or vanity?

if you go your own way
no one leads you astray
light it with fire,
your burning destiny

ret hot alight
burn burn tonight
we set the world on fire
