

Devil's Nest

One Morning Left

Come to my house, let's have a party, what is mine is yours
From a man to a mouse, a worthless army, my mind fights many wa rs

This mask rarely falls off but when it does it shocks everyone
Are you ready to see the man behind the blue eyes?
Nothing is what it seems! Get fucking ready to see the man behi nd the blue eyes!
The two sides of the coin you throw I hide in plain sight and g row

Come to my house, let's have a party, what is mine is yours
From a man to a mouse, a worthless army, my mind fights many wa

A place to rest, the devils nest, welcome every tired guest!
A sheep costume is what I wear, a wolf in disguise; you can't s leep here!

This betrayal will be seen again, all of you will learn the dif ference between the crazy and the sane
