

Downfall

One Morning Left

It all started-one day
Realised I was fading away
Praying, "God open a door!"
Now I pray no more
I gave you all I have, my heart and soul
Now watch me as I lose control

Pray
It's your downfall

All aboard
The stress-train
Tighten up your motherfucking slave chain
Rat race, no pain, no gain, no fame
Imma become Bruce Wayne
Batman
For what? An ego-driven "masterplan"?
I'm not insane
We are not the same
Hey, I got a question:
Why is everyone ok with this oppression?

I gave you all I have, my heart and soul
Now watch me as I lose control

Pray! 'Cause this the last call
Fight fight fight it's your downfall
I'll be laughing when I see you falling
I'll be laughing when I see you crawling
Pray! 'Cause this the last call
Fight fight fight it's your downfall
I'll be laughing when I see you falling
I'll be laughing when I see you crawling

No more
I refuse to be a whore
Gimme one more bad day
I'm rotten to the core
PTSD like I was in a war
Fighting, surviving now I'm crying on the floor
I'm not insane
We are not the same
Hey, I got a question:
Why is everyone ok with this oppression?

I gave you all I have, my heart and soul
Now watch me as I lose control

Pray! 'Cause this the last call
Fight fight fight it's your downfall
I'll be laughing when I see you falling
I'll be laughing when I see you crawling
Pray! 'Cause this the last call
Fight fight fight it's your downfall
I'll be laughing when I see you falling
I'll be laughing when I see you crawling

Will I ever be whole again?
I will never be whole again

I gave you all I have, my heart and soul
Now watch me as I lose control

Pray! 'Cause this the last call
Fight fight fight it's your downfall
I'll be laughing when I see you falling
I'll be laughing when I see you crawling
Pray! 'Cause this the last call
Fight fight fight it's your downfall
I'll be laughing when I see you falling
I'll be laughing when I see you crawling

Will I ever be whole again?
I will never be whole again

Make me whole again
