

Ruby Dragon

One Morning Left

I am lost in a maze
Feels like I've been here for days

Neon projection, no direction
But I'm sure I'll find perfection
Within these moving walls

I'm running
Running and laser-gunning
I'm loving
This never ending story
I was born for glory
I'm running
Running and laser-gunning
I'm loving
This never ending story
Of glory

These walls, they feel like home
These halls, forever I may roam
These roads lead to great passion
Waking the ruby dragon

Nothing satisfies my hunger
I'm a born treasure hunter
Nothing satisfies my hunger
I strike like thunder
Nothing satisfies my hunger
I'm a born 'n raised treasure hunter
Nothing satisfies my hunger
I strike like thunder

Neon projection, no direction
But I'm sure I'll find perfection
Within these moving walls

I'm running
Running and laser-gunning
I'm loving
This never ending story
I was born for glory
I'm running
Running and laser-gunning
I'm loving
This never ending story
Of glory

These walls, they feel like home
These halls, forever I may roam
These roads lead to great passion
Waking the ruby dragon

These walls, they feel like home

These walls, they feel like home

These roads lead to great passion
