Appetite

One Night Only

Take a flask out on the train
Arch your back and watch the rain
As it's calling, calling

I'll shoulder demons to the left
Spinning storms around my head
Won't stop turning, turning

And I'll concede in the sea at night
As the hours are getting small
That I've been here before

Late in the night there's a warning light
That I won't see, left it off my mind
Oh no. And I'm crawling, crawling

Comes as no surprise
Can't kill my appetite
We've all got our own flaws, la la la
Aren't you satisfied? There's no reason to try
Can't kill my appetite

I'll pace around this kitchen floor
Like a thousand times before
I'll be stalling, stalling

Until the god here on my right
Giving guidance, looks resigned
Just stops talking, talking

Savour the taste of the bends and breaks
As the hours are getting small
Once more, for old time's sake

Armed with the the quote of the date and age
Just the way you made
Try to make your way, oh
And I'm calling, calling

Comes as no surprise
Can't kill my appetite
We've all got our own flaws, la la la
Aren't you satisfied? There's no reason to try
Can't kill my appetite

Comes as no surprise
Can't kill my appetite
We've all got our own flaws, la la la
Aren't you satisfied? There's no reason to try
Can't kill my appetite

Can't kill my appetite
Can't kill my appetite
Can't kill my appetite
