

Hurricane

One Night Only

This is a hurricane
I'm running for the miles
I'm going nowhere
But I'm young, I'm on a rise [?]
This is a riot, girl
And you are the drums
We are a chorus, people
You are the lungs

This is a hurricane!
Come on, come on!
Shaking your bones
Shaking your soul, oh
This is a hurricane
Come on, come on, yeah

I've got a question
And you know what's right
I'm in the dark
You're in the light
This is a riot
And we're banging the drums
We are a chorus, people
You are the lungs

This is a hurricane!
Come on, come on!
Shaking your bones
Shaking your soul, oh
This is a hurricane
Come on, come on, yeah

This is a hurricane
Come on, come on, yeah
This is a hurricane
Come on, come on, yeah, oh...

This is a hurricane!
Come on, come on!
Shaking your bones
Shaking your soul, oh
This is a hurricane
Come on, come on, yeah

This is a hurricane!
Come on, come on!
Shaking your bones
Shaking your soul...
