

Tiny Pieces

ONE OK ROCK

Wish I could forget how it felt
When you said that it's over
Staring at your lipstick
On the wineglass by the sofa
Had the same fight twenty times in a night
I regret that
It's not the first time that you left
It's the first time you didn't come back

It's how I spend my days
It's all I think about
This ain't a dream
I'm stuck in a nightmare
Get me out

Cause I'm broken
Ain't nobody gonna fix me
And I'm choking
On the pictures and the memories
Every time I do it to myself
Never seem to learn I'm crying for help
Cause I'm broken
Ain't nobody gonna fix me
Yea you broke me into tiny pieces

I can see the ghost of your headlights
Fade as you drive away
Took the one thing that I can't live
Without
For a single day
Had the same fight twenty times in a night
I regret that
It's not the first time that I've prayed
It's the first time I prayed you'd come back

Cause I'm broken
Ain't nobody gonna fix me
And I'm choking
On the pictures and the memories
Every time I do it to myself
Never seem to learn I'm crying for help
Cause I'm broken
Ain't nobody gonna fix me
Yea you broke me into tiny pieces

Yea you broke me into tiny pieces

It's how I spent my days
It's all I think about
This ain't a dream
I'm stuck in a nightmare
Get me out

Cause I'm broken
And I'm choking

Every time I do it to myself
Never seem to learn I'm crying for help
Ain't nobody gonna fix me
Yea you broke me into tiny pieces

You broke me into tiny pieces
Yea you broke me into tiny pieces
