

The Gate

One Step Closer

On this endless
Summer night it
Breaks down in the Warm season
I'll forget to
Feel something
When you cross my mind
I'll just wave goodbye

So was it a sacrifice when
You told me your life was compromised
So was it a part of your act to
Let me go without reply

When I close the gate
Again
And I turn away
Again
My mind is made

So you found it
What your hiding
When I call you with
One last breath
I'll tell you
That I'm done with
How you changed my life
But you wasted time

So was it a sacrifice when
You told me your life was compromised
So was it a part of your act to
Let me go without reply

When I close the gate
Again
And I turn away
Again
My mind is made

Again
Again
Again

So was it a sacrifice when
You told me your life was compromised
So was it a part of your act to
Let me go without reply

When I close the gate
Again
And I turn away
When I close the gate
Again
Again
Again (Again)
When I walk away

Again
Try and be a better man
