

Your Hazel Tree

One Step Closer

Forced out
The only one to be ashamed
Why do you open conversation
Quick to make a judgement
I am down on my word
For better or worse
Don't tell me I'm the one who's wrong
Cause all these years you're
The one who's lying on the floor

Your hatred
Settled in my mind
Erase you
From the center of my eyes

Maybe I'm the one who chained it
I suppress my pity, grab the knife
Can't seem to think clearly
When I'm closer to the end
(Closer to the end)

Maybe I'm the one who chained it
I suppress my pity, grab the knife
I can't wallow or forgive
After all you left me with
(All you left me with)

Cause I won't let you
Why did you bring this back up
You've gone too far

You can't save it

Write it down in your memories
Buried under lock and key

Maybe I'm the one who chained it
When I suppress my pity, grab the knife
Can't seem to think clearly
When I'm closer to the end
(Closer to the end)

Maybe I'm the one who chained it
When I suppress my pity, grab the knife
Just dig for our new friends
After all you left me with
(All you left me with)
