

Farewell

One Without

Lost your track of time chasing ashes of yourself no one sees the pain

It is locked behind that stone cold mask that you wear so just take it off

Leave the world you hold in make yourself a favor
and give the ones you love a chance to say farewell

Choose your actions well when the time has come to show who you really are

It is locked behind that stone

Stay to see what's gone in vain then turn the page and face reality don't go looking for a hero it is all about you
