

Trap Door

OneRepublic

You say you're a minute from the deep end
They cut cold the courtesy, its sink or swim now
And your body's aching for a breath, I'll give it to ya
With a trap door to take care of all of them

Come away, come away now
You won't stand from afar
When you hear me sayin
Come away, come away now
Cause you're too close for me to call

I've seen the foolish shame the wise
You just kept quiet with his own surprises
And your Trojan horse is big enough to save them all
And you're not a foolish one at all

Come away, come away now
You won't stand from afar
When you hear me sayin
Come away, come away now
Cause you're too close for me to call

Lost to found, do you know
You're the victim of...

Kick-slide your pose, let it go
You don't need them
Only flesh, blood, and bones

We're the same, you and I
Far too young to die

Come away, come away now
You won't stand from afar
When you hear me sayin
Come away, come away now
Cause you're too close for me to call
