

Carry Us Away

OneSideZero

Sweet was the taste on her lips
Our sweat has begun to sting
Touch the sweetness so alive
Falling into me

But I lost my mind in this tragedy
What covers your lies was this called ecstasy

Take away
It carries us away
Gone so long
Somewhere
To carry us away
We fell on each other once more
The sheets have begun to stain
But I couldn't love you more

You said you would stay

Did you lose your mind in this tragedy
What covers our lies was this your way

Take away
It carries us away
Gone so long
Somewhere
To carry us away

Carry us away
You carry us away
Carry us away
You carry us away
Carry us away
You carry us away
Carry us away
You carry us away
