

Carry Your Gun

OneSideZero

Could I have lived in a time that passed me by?
Could I have slept while others went and died?
Is it really someone else's chore?
Well I have made a bed now I must lay
A quiet trance, I slowly drift away
And I think it was so beautiful

Someday soon, we'll all come around
Yeah someday soon

You'll carry your gun
And call me your enemy
We're not so far apart
Now carry your gun
And call me your enemy
We're not so far apart
But say it's life and I will be just fine
I'm counting down, as time ticks by
Could it be it really is our fault?
Now shut me up imagine what's the truth

You silly kid, these tricks are not for you
And I think it's still so beautiful

Someday soon, we'll all come around
Yeah someday soon

You'll carry your gun
And call me your enemy
We're not so far apart
Now carry your gun
And call me your enemy
We're not so far apart

You call me your enemy
Keep calling me enemy

Your enemy
Your enemy
Carry your gun
Call me your enemy
We're not so far apart
Now carry your gun
Carry your gun
I'm not your enemy
Now carry your gun
Carry your gun
You're just like me
You call me your enemy
Keep calling me enemy
