

Stay

OneSideZero

I found a photograph, you said wasn't mine
Inside the paper sack were pieces of the crime
We want to make-believe the story wasn't true
But after all this time the picture was of you

Tell me stay
I have become so comfortably numb
One more word
To stay right here with you

I watched the masquerade, the dance is so benign
Enter the second act, with nowhere left to hide
Now some begin to laugh, some begin to cry
Come let's raise our glass and toast farewell, goodbye
Tell me stay
I have become so comfortably numb

One more word
To stay right here with you

I'll stay
I'll stay
I'll stay right here with you

Come, come, come, baby
Come, come, come, oh it's so real
Oh darling it's so real

Was it supposed to feel this way?
When you walked in now, baby
That's when I walked out

Tell me stay
I have become so comfortably numb
One more word
To stay right here with you
I'll stay
I'll stay
I'll stay right here with you
