

Who Will Stop The Rain

OneSideZero

Life, it's a cause and effect some will win
Some will lose some time
We call it peace of mind
And it feels like the world keeps on pushing you down
Well pick yourself up from the ground
Kid, it's only the second round

I'll take this one alone
I'll do this thing and then I'm gone
But I'll keep dreaming
Who will stop the rain from falling down
I keep falling down
And who will stop the rain from falling down
I put myself where I belong
Tried and true select only a few
With the pen that will not write

Words that we forget in time
Now hold onto something you know is real
It's finally my turn to feel
It's finally my turn to deal

I'll take this one alone
I'll do this thing then I'm gone
But I'll keep dreaming
Who will stop the rain from falling down
I keep falling down
And who will stop the rain from falling down
I won't fall again

Who will stop the rain from falling down
I keep falling down
Who will stop the rain from falling down
I keep falling down
