

GRAVITY

ONEWE

I'm a gravity
I feel like I'm floating on cloud nine
You're my gravity
Leanin' one side, tangled and intertwined
I can't ignore
To call it love
Something meant to be
We just can't deny it anymore

The barren land, empty roads, end up to find, aim you're mine
Fallin' down, my love, oh
Can't resist you, I got you in my mind, in your time
Losing myself to love

I'm a gravity
Pulling towards us, you and I
I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you
Gravity
Even if it's dangerous to die
I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you, fallin' to you

Yeah, yeah
I'm a gravity
My eyes are revolution, deep in your personality, ayy
In any hypothesis
My love doesn't change, break the frame of tragedy
My heart gets possessive
'Cause I feel that I'm copped up
My love is the only gravity
Like the new avengers ability

My feelings change every moment in my mind
It hovers behind, spreadin' the flowers, woah
You cover me gently and we become bind, we're combined
Losing my mind to love

I'm a gravity
Pulling towards us, you and I
I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you
Gravity
Even if it's dangerous to die
I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you, fallin' to you

Without you, there's no life
I call you the one
That I want you
That I want you
There's no reason to live without you
'Cause I'm nothing without you
I can't do, I can't do anything
Remember you're me and I'm you

I'm a gravity

Pulling towards us, you and I
I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you
Gravity
Even if it's dangerous to die
I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you, fallin' to you

I wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with you
Fallin' to you, fallin' to you
Fallin' to you
