Still I feel strange and shy
I'm waiting for that you blink to me
With your pretty eye
And call my name
So we can be closer each other
And let's be together

The gray city I'm watching as I'm sitting
It's so loud and busy
Give your hand to me
I still don't know what you're saying

Take it slowly slowly slowly

It's cause the world is still unfamiliar to me
Blink blink blink blink
Blink your eyes and greet me first
Then I'll go to you

Hey hey hey hello
Come come come close to me, yeah
Hey hey hey hello
Smile and blink your eyes

Just kiss my eye
Like a green light
You want me and you follow me
And grooming grooming
I'm jumping into your
Cloud-like embrace and laying down

The sky I'm looking at
Sometimes it gives a cold gift
Then from somewhere
Call my name that you made for me

It's cause the world is still unfamiliar to me
Blink blink blink blink
Blink your eyes and greet me first
Then I'll go to you

On days I wanna quietly lay down
Under the afternoon sun
Don't bother me ok
On days I wanna walk
On quiet streets
Then be with me oh

It's cause our languages are a bit different
Blink blink blink blink
Start with the blinking
Then I'll go to you

Hey hey hey hello
Come come come close to me, yeah
Hey hey hey hello
Blink your eyes at me

Still I feel strange and shy
I'm waiting for that you blink to me
With your pretty eye
And call my name
So we can be closer each other
