Onlap

You lied, again
Another sleepless night
You're sorry, again
Like that can make it right

You fake a smile for another day
You swear you're done, but then you stray
I'll lose myself for another day
But you're still under my skin
Don't wanna hear you say

"I can change
Forgive me
I hate it"
Look into my eyes now, what do you see?
I got my heart back, on the right track, I'm finally free again
"One more chance
And I swear..."

Always, the same
I know you're stuck in pain
But I'm the one
Who's crying through the rain

I watch you fall another day
You break me down, then walk away
I hold my breath another day
But you're still under my skin

"I can change
Forgive me
I hate it"
Look into my eyes now, what do you see?
I got my heart back, on the right track, I'm finally free again
"One more chance
And I swear
It's the last time that I hurt you
The last time I run from myself"

So don't say you're sorry
We both know you're not
You tell me you're trying
Then instantly give up
I'm done with your problems
I'm done with your lies
I'm done with your lies
I'm done with your lies
Just let me go now
It's over now
It's over now
It's over now
It's over now

"I can change
Forgive me

I hate it"
Look into my eyes now, what do you see?
I got my heart back, on the right track, I'm finally free again
"One more chance
And I swear
It's the last time that I hurt you
The last time I run from myself"
Run from myself
The last time I run from myself"
