

Ghosts - Reimagined

Onlap

Everything is so cold
I'm a mess now you're gone

A part of me is locked up in the past
I'm always looking back
You never really disappear
My heart is haunted by the memories
The echoes of your voice
I swear I can still hear them sometimes

I surrender to gravity
Your gravity
I'm done
I'm done

Why am I feeling
So alone
Everything is so cold
I'm a mess now you're gone
Someone help me
Holding on
'Cause I still feel your halo
Halo
I know that
I'm living with ghosts

I feel your presence everywhere I go
I live in the shadows
I still hope, but you're not there
I spend my nights looking at photographs
'Cause this is all I've got
And your name engraved in stone

I surrender to gravity
Your gravity
I'm done
I'm done

Why am I feeling
So alone
Everything is so cold
I'm a mess now you're gone
Someone help me
Holding on
'Cause I still feel your halo
Halo
I know that
I'm living with ghosts
I'm living with ghosts

Give me a sign
Tell me you're still alive
A part of me is lost forever
Tell me you're not too far
Among the stars
I can't breathe
My heart bleeds

I just cannot face the truth

I'm always looking back

Why am I feeling so...?
So alone (Alone)
Everything is so cold (Is so cold)
I'm a mess now you're gone (A mess now you're gone)
Holding on
I know that
I'm living with ghosts

Give me a sign
Among the stars
My heart bleeds
