

Rock Ain't Dead

Onlap

(Hey! Hey!)

Not a day without a new good rock song
Twenty years, we've been listening all along
Every time I'm gonna try to believe it
There's a song that reminds me of everything

Wonder why, wonder why I should believe it
From what I see, it's so much different
Will never know, never know, never know why...
Why everybody says:

"Hey! Hey!
Now it's gone away
Rock is now dead
And they say: (Hey!)
"No one cares today
We've gotta face the truth
Now it's far away"

Tell me what you want (Hey!)
Here is what you've got (Hey!)
New bands everyday
More than we have ever seen

They say that rock is now dead
Don't ask why...
Fuck it! (Hey!)

They say that rock is now dead! (Hey!)

Different styles and sounds, there's no weakness
Not moving on would leave us faceless
Mainstream, popular, are they problems?
If yes, maybe something's broken

Wonder why, wonder why I should believe it
From what I see, it's so much different
Will never know, never know, never know why...
Why everybody says (why everybody says):

"Hey! Hey!
Now it's gone away
Rock is now dead
And they say: (Hey!)
"No one cares today
We've gotta face the truth
Now it's far away" (What?!)

Tell me what you want (Hey!)
Here is what you've got (Hey!)
New bands everyday
More than we have ever seen

They say that rock is now dead

Don't ask why...

I've got nothing to say
(It's such a goddamn part of me!)
Don't care for the industry
(It's such a goddamn part of me!)
'Till the end of time (Hey!)
'Till the world's on fire (Hey!)
We'll make sure it's still alive, yeah!

"Hey! Hey!
Now it's gone away
Rock is now dead
And they say: (Hey!)
"No one cares today
We've gotta face the truth
Now it's far away!"

It's such a goddamn part of me!
It's such a goddamn part of me!

"Hey! Hey!
Now it's gone away
Rock is now dead
And they say: (Hey!)
"No one cares today
We've gotta face the truth
Now it's far away" (What?!)

Tell me what you want (Hey!)
Here is what you've got (Hey!)
New bands everyday
More than we have ever seen

They say that rock is now dead
Don't ask why...
Fuck it! (Hey!)

(Heeey!)
They say that rock is dead
They say that rock is dead!

Hey!
