

Still Alive

Onlap

Here and now what I am like
To waste all my time waiting for a sign
I eat and smoke, I've no job, no friends
I never even had a girl

And I throw my tears away, in my own world
Look at me know, but just look at me know
Can you see what's left of what I am?
Giving up the way that led me here
Look at me know, but just look at me know
Now I think it's time for me to

Wake up, wake up, wake up, its time to face it
Get up, get up, get up, give up my weakness
Wake up, wake up, wake up, it's time to care of
Get up, get up, get up

And I am just a lost man
In this life where I don't belong
I cannot see, I cannot feel anything
I spent so much time to cry, I'm still alive

Ouvre les yeux et retrouve-toi
De quoi t'animer te réinventer
Loin des temps perdus, il est temps d'avancer
De cicatriser et de réaliser

Qu'on a tant de choses à vivre
N'abandonne pas, looking up a stan try to figure it out
Il reste encore du temps
Tant de rêves à accomplir
Projette-toi, staying all alone, I am just so tired
Il reste encore du temps

Wake up, wake up, wake up, it's time to face it
Get up, get up, get up, give up my weakness
Wake up, wake up, wake up, it's time to care of
Get up, get up, get up

And I am just a lost man
In this life where I don't belong
I cannot see, I cannot feel anything
I spent so much time to cry

If I'm alive, why I'm in hell?
I have to try, if I'm alive
What if I try, et je m'enfuie, to star to shine, et puis je vie
To walk the line, what if I try

And I am just a lost man
In this life where I don't belong
I cannot see, I cannot feel anything
I spent so much time to cry, I'm still alive

I'm still alive
I'm still alive
