

Tribute (Now or Never)

Onlap

Too bad
I'm falling apart
Like a dead cell on the ground
One thing
We change or die
Do not ever let it end

Now we are still swinging
After the years we are just so fine again
Never leave what is broken
Rise above this tonight like warriors

Burn it, burn it to the ground
Just to, just to get high
Burn it, burn it to the ground
Try to fuck me like you hate me

This means war
When we stand together
This means war
Million miles an hour
This means war
When we stand together
It's time for a tribute now
(A tribute now)
'Cause it's now or never
'Cause it's now or never

Hang on
A last resort
Ready for the next go round
Edge of
A revolution
You will never watch us drown

Now we are still swinging
After the years we are just so fine again
Never leave what is broken

Burn it, burn it to the ground
Just to, just to get high
Burn it, burn it to the ground
Try to fuck me like you hate me

This means war
When we stand together
This means war
Million miles an hour
This means war
When we stand together
It's time for a tribute now
(A tribute now)

Silence is the enemy now
(What are we waiting for?)

Silence is the enemy now
(We throw our scars far away)

This means war
When we stand together
This means war
Million miles an hour
This means war
When we stand together
It's time for a tribute now
(A tribute now)

It's time for a tribute now
(A tribute now)
