

Guns Don't Shoot

ONUKA

Dazed all day, stuck in a maze
Sleepless knights, daydreamed fights
Weapons drawn, protect your own
Lives are lost, too high the cost
No peace for war, she keeps the score
The stakes are high, many will die

Another war has begun
With the loading of a gun
In war, to kill is not a crime
Another mother never said goodbye

As the echoes of the battle cry subside
From a distance a new wave comes alive
As the echoes of the battle cry subside
From a distance a new wave comes alive

Dazed all day, stuck in a maze
Sleepless knights, daydreamed fights
Weapons drawn, protect your own
Lives are lost, too high the cost
No peace for war, she keeps the score
The stakes are high, many will die

We do things that can't be undone
We fight a fight that can't be won

Another war has begun
With the loading of a gun
In war, to kill is not a crime
Another mother never said goodbye

People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people

As the echoes of the battle cry subside
From a distance a new wave comes alive
As the echoes of the battle cry subside
From a distance a new wave comes alive

People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot people
People shoot people, guns don't shoot...
