

Time

ONUKA

Happiness that we have is so elusive
Like the shadows disappearing in the noon time
Emptiness that we have is so depressive that we lose control, ooh
Happiness that we had was so, so elusive

I'm sorry I can not freeze time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time now

Out of, out of, out of time
Out of, out of, out of time
Out of, out of, out of time

Looking through your photos I've lived your life
Like I watched the movie of your life
They're like spirits showing all at once in the night time
All the time that we have is limited so all we do is run
And we lose control
Happiness that we had was so elusive

Hold pause, hold pause
Hold pause, hold pause

Out of, out of, out of time
Out of, out of, out of time
Out of, out of, out of time

I'm sorry I can not freeze time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time now

I'm sorry I can not freeze time
Out of, out of, out of time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
Out of, out of, out of time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
Out of, out of, out of time
I'm sorry I can not freeze time
Out of, out of, out of time

Hold pause, hold pause
Don't you hold pause, hold pause?
Night time
Night time...
