Be Ok

Ookay

Everything's gonna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay

I just wanna lay inside my bed
Pretend this psycho world does not exist
I keep going back to the same old shit
Now I'm getting tired, need to sit down 'cause I'm feeling kinda woozy
I feel dizzy now

I hope one day, I just
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Wanna be, be, be, be

I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely
I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely

I don't want a cloud hanging over me
My chest is getting tight and it's hard to breathe
Wasting precious time gives me anxiety (anxiety)
Help me get it right so we can shine just like they do in the movies

I hope one day, I just
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Wanna be, be, be, be

I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely
I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely

I think about you when I'm lonely

I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely
I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely

I just
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be

I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely
I just wanna be okay
Everything's gonna be okay
I think about you when I'm lonely

Everything's gonna be okay
