

Not Again

Ookay

This feeling won't stop beating me alive
It must be something that I might've done twice
I don't wanna think about it 'cause it's holding me back (ooh, don't look back)
'Cause every time I do, I feel so under attack

Well not again, not again, not again with you
I'm getting sick and tired of the things that we do
Well not again, not again, not again with you
Well not again, not again, no, not again with you

No, not again with you
No, not again with you, no
Not again with you
No, not again with you

No, not again with you
No, not again with you

I think about it every day and night (what do you think about?)
All the things I should've done right (yeah, yeah)
I don't wanna think about it 'cause it's holding me back (ooh,
don't look back)
'Cause every time I do, I feel so under attack

Well not again, not again, not again with you
I'm getting sick and tired of the things that we do
Well not again, not again, not again with you
Well not again, not again, no, not again with you

No, not again with you
No, not again with you, no
Not again with you
No, not again with you

No, not again with you
No, not again with you
