

So What

Ookay

So what?
We were only so young, it was only for fun
And so what?
I was only in love, you were only someone

And I fight back all the chemicals that rage
They're telling me I need something that walked away
So what?
I was only in love, you were only someone

And I've had enough
If you wanna go I'll pack your stuff
Say you're really done, I'll call your bluff
Like I'm supposed to break down, yeah
Like I'll never be the same now
I'm not gonna sit back, cry about what?
That you're moving on
Know you'll be out front
I'm already gone
Am I supposed to give a fuck?
So what? So what? So what?

Already gone
Am I supposed to give a fuck?

And that sucks
That we took it this far for some broken hearts
And bad luck
That we tried so hard just to draw the wrong cards

And I fight back all the chemicals that rage
Time heals everything or so they say
So what?
I was only in love, you were only someone

And I've had enough
If you wanna go I'll pack your stuff
Say you're really done, I'll call your bluff
Like I'm supposed to break down, yeah
Like I'll never be the same now
I'm not gonna sit back, cry about what?
That you're moving on
Know you'll be out front
I'm already gone
Am I supposed to give a fuck?
So what? So what? So what?

Am I supposed to give a fuck

So what?
We were only so young, it was only for fun
And so what?
I was only in love, you were only someone
