

Anniversary

Oomph!

I hang around and stare at the scene
It's unbelievable and obscene
So fucking decadent and so clean
It's like a fucking film to me
A sudden sound is smashing my ears
A sudden light is feeding my fears
A sudden breeze is drying my tears
And then you're there and talk to me

So tell me do you see what I see ?
And tell me do you feel what I feel ?
And tell me do you know what I mean ?
It's like a fucking malady
I can't believe it happens to me
I try to run but I cannot flee
I hope you've come to rescue me:
It's a fucking anniversary!

Don't try to deny me!

Still hang around here watching the scene
It's very elegant and so green
So fucking chic, you know what I mean ?
It's like a fucking trip to me
A sudden touch is hitting me hard
A sudden warmth is eating my heart
A sudden feeling tears me apart
Are you still here to stay with me ?

Now tell me do you see what I see ?
And tell me do you feel what I feel ?
And tell me do you know what I mean ?
It fills me up with agony
I can't believe it happens to me
This is not where I wanted to be
I hope you've come to set me free:
It's a fucking anniversary!
Don't try to deny me!
Don't try to treat me like that!
