

The Final Match

Oomph!

She gently kissed her favorite doll and
She smashed it on the floor
And then she crept with dark intentions
Straight through the bedroom door

She quietly took the final match from
Her father's secret place
"Why have you never tried to help me?"
She screamed in mother's face
"I'd love to make you both just disappear!"

"So that you'll know what it's like
To be living in hell
So that you'll know what it's like
When redemption has failed
I just came back for tonight
With flames in my eyes
To take the final match
And burn your motherfucking ivory tower down"

She cooked herself just one last meal and
She kept until she choked
And then she spit all her revulsion
Into the bedroom smoke

"I'd love to make you both just disappear!"

"So that you'll know what it's like
To be living in hell
So that you'll know what it's like
When redemption has failed
I just came back for tonight
With flames in my eyes
To take the final match
And burn your ivory tower down

So that you'll know what it's like
To be living in hell
(So that you'll know what it's like)
So that you'll know what it's like
When redemption has failed
(So that you'll know what it's like)
I just came back for tonight
With flames in my eyes
To take the final match
And burn your motherfucking ivory tower down"

"Now you know what it's really like in hell
Now you know what it's really like in hell
Did you think that this was all a farewell?
Don't you know that I'll see you both in hell?"

"So that you'll know what it's like
To be living in hell
So that you'll know what it's like
When redemption has failed
I just came back for tonight

(Back for tonight)
With flames in my eyes
(With flames in my eyes)
To take the final match
And burn your ivory tower down

So that you'll know what it's like
To be living in hell
(So that you'll know what it's like)
So that you'll know what it's like
When redemption has failed
(So that you'll know what it's like)
I just came back for tonight
(Back for tonight)
With flames in my eyes
(With flames in my eyes)
To take the final match
And burn your motherfucking ivory tower down"
