

Son of a Gun

Open Hand

We had it all before you broke in two
We had enough to save the world
I don't regret what I said
Cause the stakes won't get any smaller
There's a look in your eyes saying we've got a chance
Let's flow, let's go

We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(I know one way or another)
We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(Oh oh oh)
We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(I know one way or another)
We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us

I know you know I need to know it's you
Black and defeated, I traveled the world for you
I'm not quite sure if you know I'm here for you
Cause I'm the one that is a pissed off son-of-a-gun

We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(I know one way or another)
We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(Oh oh oh oh)
We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(I know one way or another)
We're gonna get what's coming to us, to us
(Oh oh oh oh oh)

(I know my whole life now)
(I know you feel the same)
